THE COLLEGE

"Amherst College, one of the best known of the so-called small New England colleges, is situated in a beautiful amphitheatre of hills in the town of Amherst, Massachusetts. It was founded in 1821 but did not receive its charter until 1825. Like most early colleges of New England, it was established with the chief aim of preparing students for the ministry. Although soon after its founding the college began to widen the scope of its activities, it has preserved to the present day the idea of a liberal as opposed to a vocational training. Consistent with this purpose it has never added graduate or professional schools, adhering strictly to a course leading to the degree of A.B. with an ever real, though diminishing, emphasis upon the ancient classics." [1]

The corporate name of the institution is "Trustees of Amherst College."

The general government of the College is vested in the Board of Trustees. Its immediate direction is vested in the Faculty, who are empowered by the Trustees to determine the topics and order and method of study, and to make such rules as may be deemed necessary for the best regulation of the College.

A list of the Presidents of the College, with their terms of service, follows;

Rev. Zephaniah Swift Moore, d.d.	1821–1823
Rev. Heman Humphrey, d.d.	1823–1845
Rev. Edward Hitchcock, d.d., ll.d.	1845–1854
Rev. William Augustus Stearns, d.d., ll.d.	1854–1876
Rev. Julius Hawley Seelye, d.d., ll.d.	1876–1890
Merrill Edwards Gates, ph.d., ll.d., l.h.d.	1890–1899
Rev. George Harris, d.d., ll.d.	1899–1912
Alexander Meiklejohn, ph.d., ll.d.	1912–1924
George Daniel Olds, ll.d.	1924–1927
Arthur Stanley Pease, ph.d., ll.d.	1927–1932
Stanley King, ll.d.	1932–

DEGREES

BACHELOR OF ARTS

The Degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred upon students of Amherst College who have satisfactorily met the requirements prescribed for that degree. The plan of studies leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts is arranged on the basis of a four years' course to be pursued by students in residence at the College.

Diplomas are graded as rite, cum laude, magna cum laude, or summa cum laude, according to scholarship.

Summa cum laude rank is fixed at ninety-three per cent, magna cum laude at eighty-eight per cent, cum laude at eighty per cent, and rite at seventy per cent.

MASTER OF ARTS

The Degree of Master of Arts is conferred upon Bachelors of Arts of Amherst College and of other colleges that confer the Bachelor of Arts degree under conditions equivalent to those at Amherst College, who, having spent one year in residence at Amherst, have satisfactorily met the requirements prescribed for that degree.

For further information application should be made to the Dean of the College.

ADMISSION

Correspondence concerning admission to the Freshman Class should be addressed to the Secretary of the Faculty

SUBJECT REQUIREMENTS

The subjects which may be presented in satisfaction of the requirements for admission to the Freshman Class, together with the number of units at which each is valued are given in the following list. The basis of valuation is one unit for a course pursued for a school year, with the understanding that a satisfactory year's work in any subject cannot be accomplished in less than one hundred and twenty sixty-minute hours or their equivalent.

Required:
English, 4 years	3 units
Latin,[1] 4 years, or
Latin, 3 years, and either 1 unit in Advanced Mathematics or a third year of a second foreign language (Not less than 3 units in Latin are accepted)	4 "
Elementary and Intermediate Algebra	2 "
Geometry, 1 year	1 "
Second foreign language, 2 years	2 "
History, 1 year (Ancient preferred)	1 "

Elective: 2 units from: 2 units

Biology	Botany
Chemistry	History
Foreign Language[2]	Music (Harmony)
Advanced Mathematics	Physiography
Physics	Zoölogy
Physiology

Total 15 units

[1] Or Greek, 3 years, 3 units. In this case 3 elective units must be presented instead of 2.

[2] If elementary, at least two years credit must be offered; if advanced, either a third year, or fourth year, or both, may be counted.

ADMISSION SUBJECTS

The detailed description of the requirements in each subject is given in the circular of information of the College Entrance Examination Board referred to below.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

A detachable form of application for admission will be found at the end of this catalog. Candidates for admission are urged to file their applications with the Secretary of the Faculty before the beginning of the final year of their preparatory course.

PRESENTATION OF CREDITS

The full fifteen units of credit should be completed in June. Candidates should not count on summer work to complete their credits, as the quota for the year may be filled in June.

Credits may be presented by College Entrance Examination Board examinations, Regents' examinations if the grade secured is seventy-five per cent or better, or by acceptable school records at accredited schools.

COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION BOARD

Examinations of June 19–24, 1933

The College Entrance Examination Board will hold examinations in June 1933 at nearly 400 points in the United States and abroad.

A list of places at which examinations will be held will be published about March 1, 1933. Requests that the examinations be held at particular points should be transmitted to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board not later than February 1, 1933.

Detailed definitions of the requirements in all examination subjects are given in a circular of information published annually about December 1. Upon request to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board a single copy of this document will be sent to any teacher without charge. In general, there will be a charge of twenty-five cents, which may be remitted in postage.

Candidates presenting credit in any of their subjects by College Board Examinations should take also the Scholastic Aptitude Test.

All candidates wishing to take these examinations must make application by mail to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117th Street, New York City. Blank forms for this purpose will be mailed by the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board to any teacher or candidate upon request by mail.

The applications and fees of all candidates who wish to take the examinations in June 1933 should reach the Secretary of the Board not later than the dates specified in the following schedule:

For examination centers:
In the United States east of the Mississippi River or on the Mississippi	May 29, 1933
In the United States west of the Mississippi River or in Canada	May 22, 1933
Outside of the United States and Canada, except in Asia	May 8, 1933
In China or elsewhere in the Orient	April 24, 1933

ADMISSION CREDITS BY REGENTS' EXAMINATIONS

Examinations given by the Regents of the State of New York are accepted towards entrance to the extent to which they cover the requirements for admission to Amherst College, provided the Regents' grade is seventy-five [1] per cent or higher.

[1] In examinations taken June 1930 or earlier a grade of seventy per cent may be acceptable.

ADMISSION WITHOUT EXAMINATION

(a) From Schools in New England.—From preparatory schools which have been approved by the New England College Entrance Certificate Board certificates of fitness to enter College are received in place of entrance examinations.

(b) From Schools Outside of New England.—Candidates from approved schools outside of New England may secure credit for admission without examination in those subjects in which their school record warrants it. It will be the general policy of the College to accept for credit without examination only such records as are at least as high as the grade at which the school "recommends" the candidate for C.E.E.B. examinations. Records will be considered from schools which are on the approved list of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, or the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. In determining the eligibility of other schools to the approved list the College follows in general the method of the New England College Entrance Certificate Board.

The reports of school records are made on forms prepared by the College and sent to the principals. A preliminary report in January is supplemented by a final report in June.

ANTICIPATION OF COLLEGE COURSES BY EXAMINATION

Students who have completed in their preparatory schools or in a Junior College studies corresponding to courses given in Amherst College may obtain credit for such courses by special arrangement.

ADMISSION FROM OTHER COLLEGES OR INSTITUTIONS OF COLLEGIATE RANK

To be eligible for transfer the candidate must meet the following requirements:

1. His credits must satisfy the full entrance requirements of Amherst College, including the Latin requirement.

2. He must have completed creditably the work of at least one year in an institution of collegiate rank, and his general average at the institution he is leaving must correspond to or be better than the Amherst diploma average of seventy per cent.

3. He must present a statement of honorable dismissal.

Candidates for admission by transfer are admitted in September only.

For further details address the Recorder.

CURRICULUM

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is awarded to candidates who complete twenty year-courses which include one year of mathematics; one year of English; one year (two years if elementary) of Greek or one year of Latin[1]; two years of science in the group astronomy, biology, chemistry, geology, physics; one year in the group English, foreign language, music; one year of history or philosophy; and in addition to the twenty courses certain work in the group public speaking, dramatic art, chorus or orchestra, and in physical education.

In order to receive a degree a candidate must have no deficiencies in the work of any year, must have a reading knowledge of French or German, and must attain an average grade of seventy per cent for his entire course.

Courses of study are by years. Each student takes five courses in each year, no student taking more than six courses. (This does not apply to Public Speaking 1, 2, Dramatic Art 1, Music A.)

Every candidate for a degree completes one major and two minors during his college course.

A major consists of three year-courses in the same subject pursued either (1) during three consecutive years, or (2) during the Junior and Senior years. A major must be completed in the Senior year, and, therefore, it may not be begun until after the Freshman year.

A minor consists of two year-courses in one subject after the freshman year.

Early in his college course the student should note the prerequisites of the various departments in order that he may not be prevented from making the elections which he desires.

[1] Two years if the candidate offers only the minimum requirement in ancient language.

STUDIES OF FRESHMAN YEAR

1. Ancient language [a]
2. Mathematics
3. English
4, 5. Two subjects from the following groups, but not more than one subject from any one group:
   - A. Foreign language [b]
   - B. History
   - C. Chemistry, physics
6. Public speaking, dramatic art, chorus or orchestra [c]
7. Physical education

STUDIES OF SOPHOMORE YEAR

At least one subject must be chosen from each of the groups 1, 2, 3.

1. English, foreign language [d], music
2. Biology, chemistry, geology, mathematics, physics
3. History, philosophy
4. Elective
5. Elective
6. Public speaking, dramatic art, chorus or orchestra [c]
7. Physical education

[a] If the subject chosen is Greek 1 the student elects Greek 2 in his Sophomore year. In other cases only one year of ancient language is required of those who have presented for admission either four years of Latin or three years of Greek.

[b] Especial attention is called to the fact that the reading-knowledge examination in French or German may be taken in the fall of the Freshman year by those students only who present for admission three units in the language. Such an examination may be taken in the spring of the Freshman year by those who present but two units of French or German provided the language has been continued during the Freshman year.

[c] One subject must be elected from this group. These courses run through the year and require attendance and study approximately equal in amount to one-third that of a regular three-hour course.

[d] If the reading requirement of French or German has not been satisfied during Freshman year one of these languages must be elected in Sophomore year.

STUDIES OF JUNIOR YEAR

1. Major
2. Minor
3. Minor
4. Elective
5. Elective
6. Physical education

STUDIES OF SENIOR YEAR

1. Major
2. Minor
3. Minor or elective
4. Elective
5. Elective

PRE-MEDICAL STUDY

Students expecting to enter a medical school should plan their college work carefully so as to be sure to be properly prepared. French and German are required for admission to Johns Hopkins University, French or German elsewhere. In science the following elections should be made: in Freshman year, Chemistry 1; in Sophomore year, Chemistry 2 and Biology 1; in Junior year, Chemistry 3 (desirable but not necessary) and Physics 1; and in Senior year, Chemistry 4, Biology 4, and Final Honors in chemistry or biology. If Chemistry 3 is not to be taken, chemistry may be started in Sophomore year.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION IN DETAIL

Each of the following courses extends throughout the year.

Unless the contrary is stated, members of any class are permitted to elect courses which are open to the members of a lower class.

ASTRONOMY

NOTE.—Physics 4 is offered in the years in which Astronomy 2 is omitted, and may be counted as a course in astronomy.

In order that a student may present a major in astronomy or be a candidate for final honors in astronomy it is desirable for him to elect Astronomy 1 in his Sophomore year.

1. Introduction to astronomy.

Elective for Sophomores.

PROFESSOR GREEN.

2. Practical astronomy and navigation.

Elective for Juniors.

Astronomy 1, or the consent of the instructor, requisite.

Three hours per week with the understanding that two hours of observatory work may be substituted at any time for one hour of class-room work.

This course is given in alternate years with Physics 4.

PROFESSOR GREEN.

5. Special problems in astronomy. Individual work at the Observatory on assigned problems. Reports and discussions at frequent intervals.

Elective for Seniors.

Astronomy 1, Mathematics 2, and either Astronomy 2 or Physics 4 requisite.

PROFESSOR GREEN.

BIOLOGY

NOTE.—Students intending to enter a medical school should elect courses 1 and 4.

It is recommended that students who elect biology as a major subject should elect chemistry as a minor, and should acquire a reading knowledge of German.

1. General biology. An introduction, especially arranged to serve as part of a program of liberal study.

Elective for Sophomores.

Chemistry 1 or Physics 1 recommended.
Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.

Professors Glaser and Plough, and Mr. McGoun and Dr. Culemann.

Fee, $10.00.

3. General structure, physiology, and taxonomy of the flowering plants.

Elective for Sophomores.

Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week until the spring recess, after which field work will be substituted for the laboratory work and a part of the recitation appointments.

Professor Goodale and Mr. Hopkins.

Fee, $10.00.

4. Comparative anatomy and embryology of vertebrates.

Elective for Juniors.

Biology 1 requisite.
Three hours class-room and three hours laboratory work per week.

Professors Glaser and Plough.

Fee, $15.00.

5. Natural history and ecology. A study of the relations of animals to each other and to their environment.

Elective for Juniors.

Biology 1 requisite.
Second semester course. (First semester course to be Biology 7.)
Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.

Dr. Culemann.

Fee, $5.00.

6. (Omitted 1932–1933) Evolution of the plant kingdom.

Elective for Juniors.

Biology 3 requisite.
Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.
Courses 6 and 10 are offered in alternate years.

Professor Goodale.

Fee, $10.00.

7. Genetics. A study of heredity, and the mechanism of transmission of hereditary characters; with a brief consideration of the significance of such facts for evolutionary theory and certain human social problems.

Elective for Juniors.

Biology 1 requisite.
First semester course. (Second semester course may be Biology 5 or Biology 9.)
Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.

Professor Plough.

Fee. $5.00.

8. (Omitted 1932–1933) General physiology. A general survey of processes common to all living things.

Elective for Juniors.

Biology 1 and Chemistry 1 and 2 requisite. Chemistry 2 may be taken concurrently.
Three hours class-room and three hours laboratory work per week.

Professor Glaser.

Fee, $10.00.

9. Problems in biology. Individual work in the laboratory or field on assigned problems. Reports and discussions at intervals.

Elective with the consent of the instructors for Seniors and Graduate Students.

Three courses in biology or the equivalent requisite, one of these three courses may be taken concurrently; or Biology 7.
Six hours of laboratory work per week.

Professors Glaser and Plough and Dr. Culemann.

Fee, $10.00.

10. Plant distribution and ecology. A study of the effect of environment upon plants and the vegetation types. Geographical distribution. During the latter part of the year special attention will be given to the vegetation types occurring in the local flora.

Elective for Juniors.

A grade of B in Biology 3 requisite.
Courses 6 and 10 are offered in alternate years.

Professor Goodale and Mr. Hopkins.

CHEMISTRY

Note.—Students preparing for medical school should take both Chemistry 2 and Chemistry 4.

1. General chemistry.

Elective for Freshmen.

Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.

Professors Hopkins and Beebe and Dr. Whitney.

Fee, $10.00.

2. Inorganic chemistry. Class work; introduction to theoretical chemistry, with especial emphasis on the kinetic theory, theory of solutions, and applications of chemical equilibrium.

Laboratory work; inorganic preparations (until Christmas); qualitative analysis (after Christmas).

Elective for Sophomores.

Chemistry 1 requisite.
Three hours class-room and three hours laboratory work per week.

Professor Doughty and Dr. Whitney.

Fee, $20.00.

3. Quantitative chemistry. Laboratory work in gravimetric, volumetric, and electrometric methods of analysis, including determination of hydrogen ion concentration.

Elective for Juniors.

Chemistry 1, 2 requisite.
One hour class-room and seven hours laboratory work per week.

Professor Beebe.

Fee, $20.00.

4. Organic chemistry; an introduction to the chemistry of the compounds of carbon. General theory of organic chemistry and preparation of typical compounds.

Elective for Juniors.

Chemistry 2 requisite.
With the permission of the instructor Chemistry 2 may be taken concurrently with this course.
Three hours class-room and three hours laboratory work per week.

Professor Doughty and Dr. Whitney.

Fee, $20.00.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

A minimum of six hours (or twelve hours; see details in description of honors work) of laboratory work weekly, with bibliography and collateral reading.

Elective for Seniors.

DRAMATIC ART

1. An introduction to the drama.

Elective for Freshmen.

Professor Canfield.

2. The art of the theatre. An historical survey of the origins and development of the drama in Continental Europe in relation to stage presentation. Problems and practice in stage mechanics.

Elective for Sophomores.

A grade of at least C in Dramatic Art 1, English 2, or English 8 requisite.

Professor Canfield.

ECONOMICS

1. Introduction to economics.

Division A. Special section for Seniors only.

Mr. Cusick.

Divisions B, C.

Elective for Sophomores.

Prerequisite for all other courses in economics.

Professors Thorp, Taylor and Warne and Mr. Cusick.

3. Economic history of the United States. A study of the economic development of the United States from the Colonial period down to the present time.

Elective for Juniors.

Economics 1; and in addition a grade of B in Economics 1, or B in a history course, or a general average of B, requisite.

Professor Taylor.

4. Labor problems. The economic and social relations of the wage-earners with the employers and the public; trade and company unionism, labor legislation, social insurance, co-operation, and political action.

Elective for Juniors.

Economics 1; and in addition a grade of B in Economics 1 or Economics 3, or a general average of B requisite.

Professor Warne.

5. Theory of credit. An examination of the history and underlying principles of money and banking, corporation finance, international trade, and the business cycle.

Elective for Juniors.

Economics 1; and in addition a grade of B in Economics 1 or Economics 3, or a general average of B requisite.

Professor Thorp.

7. The development of economic thought. A survey of the history of economic thought, including the modern schools.

Elective with the consent of the instructor, for Seniors.

Economics 1; and in addition a grade of B in Economics 1 or Economics 3 requisite. Election limited to twelve students.

Professors Taylor, Thorp and Warne.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

Elective for Seniors.

ENGLISH

Students majoring in English are advised in general to take one minor in foreign language and one in history or philosophy (not including psychology).

A. Introduction to literature. The chief types of imaginative writing; frequent brief reports.

Required for Freshmen.

Professors Whicher, Morton and Baird, and Messrs. Hoag, McKeon and Theobald.

1. Masterpieces of English literature. A survey of important English authors from Chaucer to the present.

Elective for Sophomores.

Messrs. McKeon and Theobald.

Courses 1 and 2 may not both be elected in the same year.

2. Shakespeare. A reading of all the plays. Emphasis will be placed on Shakespeare's development as dramatist and poet.

Elective for Sophomores.

A grade of B in one course in English requisite.
Students intending to begin a major in English in Sophomore year should elect this course.

PROFESSOR BAIRD.

4. Argumentation and the forms of public address; oral and written composition. Briefmaking, the formal argument, forensic and political oratory, the occasional address, literary criticism.

Elective for Juniors.

This course may count as a course in public speaking instead of English.

PROFESSOR GARRISON.

5. Medieval Literature. Prose and poetry of the Heroic Age and the Age of Chivalry; courtly and Goliardic lyrics; Dante; popular ballads; Chaucer.

Elective for Juniors.

MR. HOAG.

6. The Renaissance. A study of a series of dramatic, lyric, epic, and prose masterpieces of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, including the poetry of Milton and some of Shakespeare's works not studied in English 2.

Elective for Juniors.

A grade of C in one course in English requisite.

PROFESSOR ELLIOTT.

7. Advanced composition. Continual writing with the criticism of instructor and class to develop original talent and good craftsmanship. Laboratory discussion groups and reading for background.

Elective for Juniors.

Admission subject to competitive test in writing to be given before election of the course.

Mr. McKeon.

8. (Omitted 1932–1933) The drama. A study of the development of English drama from the beginning to the present, with the exception of Shakespeare's plays.

Elective for Juniors.

9. Eighteenth century English literature. A study of representative prose works with emphasis on the relationship of the literature to the age.

Elective for Juniors.

Professor Baird.

11. The romantic movement. This course is chiefly concerned with the art and thought of the leading poets and essayists of the Romantic Revival. It includes, however, the transition to the moderns through the Victorian Age.

Elective for Seniors.

Mr. Theobald.

12. American literature. A rapid survey of the formative period of American literature; special studies of important books by nineteenth century authors; exploration among recent writers.

Elective for Seniors.

Professor Whicher.

13. Moods of the world today, as revealed in modern English and American poetry and prose. A course in the examination of prevailing mental states in the English-speaking countries, as seen in the work of modern imaginative writers.

Elective for Seniors.

A grade of B in one course in English requisite.

PROFESSOR MORTON.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

Elective for Seniors; in exceptional cases, for Juniors.

During the winter Professor Robert Frost will be in residence to conduct special classes in English and to hold informal conference with students.

FINE ARTS

NOTE.—A major in Fine Arts includes courses 1 and 2 and a third course selected upon recommendation of the instructor in charge, which may be a course outside the Fine Arts department.

1. A history of the development of architecture, sculpture, and painting.

Elective for Juniors.

PROFESSOR MORGAN.

2. The arts of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. A study of both the major and minor arts of the period, including a survey of their Renaissance sources.

Elective for Seniors.

PROFESSOR MORGAN.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

Elective for Seniors.

FRENCH

1. Elementary course. Equivalent to entrance French A.

Elective for Freshmen.

Professor Turgeon and Mr. Rouillard.

2. Advanced course. Equivalent to entrance French B.

Elective for Freshmen.

Professor Atkinson and Mr. Funnell.

3. Reading of representative authors and advanced composition.

Elective for Freshmen.

Professors Atkinson, R. C. Williams and Turgeon, and Messrs. Funnell and Rouillard.

4. Survey of French literature from the beginning through the nineteenth century.

Elective for Sophomores, and also, upon petition and by recommendation of the department, to exceptionally qualified Freshmen.

French 3 or grade of A in French 2 requisite.
Beginning with the class of 1935, prerequisite for candidates for honors in French.

Messrs. Funnell and Rouillard.

5. French drama of the nineteenth century.

Elective for Sophomores.

A grade of C in either French 3 or French 4 requisite.
Courses 5 and 10 are given in alternate years.

Professor R. C. Williams.

6. French literature of the eighteenth century.

Elective for Sophomores.

A grade of C in French 3 requisite.
Courses 6 and 11 are given in alternate years.

Professor Atkinson.

8. French literature of the seventeenth century.

Elective for Sophomores.

A grade of C in either French 3 or French 4 requisite.

PROFESSOR TURGEON.

10. (Omitted 1932–1933) The rise and development of the French novel.

Elective for Sophomores.

A grade of C in either French 3 or French 4 requisite.
Courses 5 and 10 are given in alternate years.

PROFESSOR R. C. WILLIAMS.

11. (Omitted 1932–1933) French poetry.

Elective for Sophomores.

A grade of C in either French 3 or French 4 requisite.
Courses 6 and 11 are given in alternate years.

PROFESSOR ATKINSON.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

Elective for Juniors.

An optional course in French conversation without credit is offered in the late afternoon hours from Thanksgiving until May.

Appropriate material to be read in preparing for the Reading Examination will be suggested by the teachers of French to students not enrolled in French courses.

GEOLOGY

NOTE.—Courses 4 and 5 may not both be elected.

1. Geology and physiography. An introduction to the processes, origin and history of land surfaces, rock structure and life development to enable one to understand the meaning and values of the country in which he may live or travel or about which he may read.

Elective for Sophomores.

Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week. Field trips in the fall and field work in the spring will be substituted for laboratory work.

PROFESSORS LOOMIS and BAIN.

2. Historical geology. An outline of the history of life, including the succession of life faunas, and the evolution of the vertebrates.

Elective for Juniors.

Geology 1 requisite.
Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.

PROFESSOR LOOMIS.

3. Mineralogy and petrography. Mineralogy first semester. Petrography second semester. Mineralogy includes identification, uses and occurrences of minerals, geographic relations of source and consumption, use of minerals in tracing out ancient channels of trade. Petrography treats with rock identification and origin as seen in texture, structure and mineral composition.

Elective for Juniors.

Geology 1 requisite.
Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week. Field trips to mineral localities will be substituted for laboratory work during the first six weeks.

PROFESSOR BAIN.

4. Studies in the evolution of the vertebrates.

Elective for Seniors.

A grade of B in the latter of two courses in geology requisite.
Three hours class-room and several hours laboratory work per week.

PROFESSOR LOOMIS.

5. Structural geology and mineral deposits. Structural geology treats the architecture of the earth, the structural units of it, the manner in which the parts are assembled, and the manner of recognition of the date and construction of the units. Mineral deposits treats the abnormal local abundance of a mineral and cause of concentration.

Elective for Seniors.

Geology 3 requisite.
One or more conferences and several hours laboratory and library work per week.

Professor Bain.

GERMAN

1. Elementary course. Grammar, pronunciation, composition, colloquial exercises, syntax, translation from prose selections. Equivalent to entrance German A.

Elective for Freshmen.

Professors Eastman and Fuller and Mr. Scenna.

2. Advanced course. Prose composition, with review of grammar; reading of modern prose; Schiller and Goethe, a representative work of each author; composition and free reproductions. Equivalent to entrance German B.

Elective for Freshmen.

Professor Fuller and Mr. Scenna.

3. Goethe's dramas. Lectures, essays, assigned readings. Faust: study of the Faust legend and of the life of Goethe.

Elective for Freshmen.

Professors Eastman and Manthey-Zorn.

4. (Omitted 1932–1933) The German novel.

Elective for Sophomores.

German 3, or the equivalent, requisite.

Professor Eastman.

5. The German drama. A study of the German drama from Lessing to the present.

Elective for Sophomores.

German 3, or the equivalent, requisite.

PROFESSOR MANTHEY-ZORN.

6. Middle High German. Epics and lyric poetry of the Age of Chivalry.

Elective for Juniors.

German 4 or 5 requisite.

PROFESSOR EASTMAN.

8. German philosophy. Readings in German philosophy together with assignments of individual problems. Outside readings, conferences, class reports and discussions.

Elective for Seniors.

German 3, or its equivalent, and one further course in German or a course in philosophy requisite.

PROFESSOR MANTHEY-ZORN.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

Elective for Seniors.

GREEK

Students in Greek should take note of History 10, "History of Greece to the Roman Conquest."

1. Course for beginners. An introduction to the Greek language and literature.

Elective for Freshmen.

MR. CRAWFORD.

2. Course for students continuing Greek. Readings from Attic Greek and from Homer.

Elective for Freshmen.

Greek 1, or its equivalent, requisite.

PROFESSOR FOBES.

3. Greek literature; Herodotus, Plato, Euripides.

Elective for Freshmen.

Greek 2, or entrance Greek A, B, H, requisite.

PROFESSOR SMITH and MR. CRAWFORD.

4. Greek drama; Aeschylus, Sophocles, Aristophanes.

Elective for Sophomores.

Greek 3 requisite.

PROFESSORS FOBES and SMITH.

5. The history of Greek literature.

Elective for Juniors.

MR. CRAWFORD, PROFESSORS FOBES and SMITH.

Greek 5 may not be taken in the same year with Latin 5.

6. Greek Epic poetry.

Elective for Sophomores.

Greek 3 requisite.

PROFESSOR FOBES.

7. Greek philosophy; Plato or Aristotle, selected works.

Elective for Juniors.

Greek 4 or 6 requisite.

PROFESSOR SMITH.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

Elective for Seniors.

HISTORY

1. Introduction to the history of contemporary civilization. A survey of the development of the European civilization since the disintegration of the Roman Empire.

Elective for Freshmen, and for Sophomores of superior standing with the permission of the instructor. Not open to Juniors or Seniors.

Prerequisite for the subsequent courses, History 2, 5, 7, 9.

Professor Packard and Mr. Havighurst.

2. The Middle Ages. A study of institutional and intellectual developments in Europe from the end of the Roman Empire through the fifteenth century.

Elective for Sophomores.

History 1 requisite.

Professor Salmon.

3. English history. A general course in the history of England and Greater Britain, covering the development of political, social and economic institutions. Special attention is given to the growth of the English constitution.

Elective for Juniors.

Professor Gallinger.

4. The age of the Renaissance.

Elective for Juniors.

Professor Thompson.

5. Europe since 1871. A fairly detailed study of the origins and course of the World War and of the post-war settlement.

Elective for Juniors.

History 1 requisite.

Professor Packard.

6. Constitutional and political history of the United States.

Elective for Juniors.

PROFESSOR THOMPSON.

7. History of Latin America. The history of Hispanic America from the period of discovery to the present, with a survey of Spanish civilization.

Elective for Sophomores.

History 1 requisite.

PROFESSOR SALMON.

8. European History, 1648 to 1871. The first semester is devoted mainly to the French Revolution, the second to the growth of machine industry, nationalism and democracy. Slight attention is paid to military and diplomatic affairs, the emphasis being placed on social, economic, and intellectual developments.

Elective for Juniors.

PROFESSOR GALLINGER.

9. An introduction to historiography. The nature and theory of history; historical literature and problems; individual studies in 19th Century biography.

Elective, with the consent of the instructor, for Seniors.

History 1 requisite. Election limited to 12 students.

PROFESSORS PACKARD and SALMON.

10. History of Greece to the Roman Conquest. Origins and characteristics of the Greek city states; political and constitutional development; spread of Hellenism in the ancient world.

Elective for Sophomores.

May be counted toward a major, or major with honors, in history but not in Greek. Courses 10 and 11 are given in alternate years.

Professor Sherman.

11. (Omitted 1932–1933) History of Rome to the fall of the Western Empire.

Elective for Sophomores.

May be counted toward a major, or major with honors, in history but not in Latin. Courses 11 and 10 are given in alternate years.

Professor Sherman.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

Elective for Juniors.

HYGIENE AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

All Freshmen and all students entering with advanced standing who have no credit in hygiene are required to take personal hygiene.

Dr. F. H. Smith.

A. Elementary division in gymnastics, athletics, aquatics, and games.

Required of Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen who have not been promoted to B.

Professors Wheeler and Lumley, and Messrs. Richardson and Holter.

B. Intermediate division in gymnastics, athletics, aquatics, and games.

Required of Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen who are in neither A nor C.

Professors Marsh and Jordan and Mr. Kennedy.

C. Advanced divisions. Selection of advanced gymnastics, athletics, aquatics, games, boxing, wrestling, squash.

Required of Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen who have been promoted to C.

Professors Marsh, Wheeler and Lumley and Messrs. Kennedy and Holter.

D. Sports. Students who are required to take physical exercise may elect with the consent of the department and the instructors concerned, in the place of divisional work A, B, or C, during the required period, sports as follows:

Track and Field Athletics.
Professor Lumley and Messrs. Richardson and Holter.
Swimming.
Mr. Kennedy.
Soccer.
Professor Marsh.
Football.
Professors Jordan and Wheeler and Messrs. Richardson and Holter.
Basketball.
Professors Jordan and Wheeler.
Baseball.
Professors Wheeler and Jordan.
Hockey.
Mr. Richardson.
Wrestling.
Mr. Holter.

Such election, however, does not remove the requirement for all students of the stated examinations for grades at the end of the required period.

ITALIAN

1. Pronunciation, grammar, translation. Stories by Castelnuovo, Farina, Verga, Fucini, Serao, Deledda, Negri, Papini, Pirandello.

Elective for Sophomores.

Dr. Aiello.

2. Advanced course. Selected tales from Boccaccio. Decameron (Fornaciari edition); Machiavelli, Il Principe; Castiglione, Il Cortegiano; Ariosto, Orlando Furioso.

Elective for Juniors.

Dr. Aiello.

3. (Omitted 1932–1933) Dante. La Vita Nuova, Divina Commedia. Lectures on Dante and his times.

Elective for Juniors.

An optional course in Italian conversation without credit is offered in the late afternoon hours from Thanksgiving until May.

LATIN

Students in Latin should take note of History 11, "History of Rome to the fall of the Western Empire."

A. Vergil. Aeneid, Books I–VI.

Elective for those only who do not present poetry authors at entrance.

Professor Sherman and Mr. Kern.

1. Pliny, selections from the Letters; Catullus, selections; Cicero, De Senectute; Horace, selections from the Odes and Epodes.

Elective for Freshmen.

Professors Bennett, Rowland, Rebert and Sherman, and Messrs. Kern and Crawford.

2. Terence, Andria, or Plautus, Trinummus; Livy, selections from Books I–V; Vergil, Eclogues and selections from the Georgics; Tacitus, Agricola, Germania.

Elective for Sophomores.

Professors Bennett and Rebert.

3. Roman history; Tacitus and Suetonius. Roman satire; Horace, Juvenal, Martial.

Elective for Juniors.

PROFESSORS REBERT and ROWLAND.

4. Roman philosophy. Lucretius, De Rerum Natura; Cicero, selected philosophical works.

Elective for Juniors.

Latin 2 requisite.

PROFESSORS BENNETT and ROWLAND.

5. Roman civilization. A survey of the contributions made by Rome to subsequent civilization. Studies of the development and significance of political institutions, religion, law, education, philosophy, art, and architecture; private life and antiquities.

Elective for Juniors.

PROFESSORS ROWLAND and BENNETT.

Latin 5 may not be taken in the same year with Greek 5.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

Elective for Seniors.

MATHEMATICS

1. Plane trigonometry, plane analytic geometry, and an introduction to the differential and integral calculus.

Required course for Freshmen who do not present trigonometry for entrance credit.

PROFESSOR ESTY and MR. BROWN.

2. Differential and integral calculus.

Elective for Sophomores.

PROFESSOR SPRAGUE.

3. Vector analysis, with applications to analytical mechanics.

Elective for Juniors.
Mathematics 2 requisite.
PROFESSOR ESTY.

4. (a) Differential equations; (b) relativity.

Elective for Juniors.
Mathematics 2 requisite.
PROFESSOR COBB.

5. Plane and solid analytic geometry and an introduction to the differential and integral calculus.

Required course for Freshmen who present trigonometry for entrance credit.
PROFESSOR SPRAGUE.

6. (Omitted 1932–1933) (a) Theory of functions of a real variable; (b) theory of functions of a complex variable.

Elective for Juniors.
Mathematics 2 requisite.
PROFESSOR COBB.

7. Modern algebra; theory of equations, matrices and forms; and the Galois group theory.

Elective for Juniors.
Mathematics 2 requisite.
PROFESSOR PORTER.

8. Statistics. Graphic representation, frequency distribution, index numbers, correlation, probability, and least squares.

Elective for Juniors.
Mathematics 2 requisite.
PROFESSOR COBB.

9. (Omitted 1932–1933) Advanced calculus; double and triple integrals, geometry of space, partial differentiation, implicit function theory, line and surface integrals, transformation of integrals, Fourier series.

Elective for Juniors.

Mathematics 2 requisite.

Mr. Brown.

MUSIC

A. Chorus and orchestra.

Chorus, Mon., 7:00, Thu., 8:15, Orchestra, Mon., 8:15, Thu., 7:00, Octagon.

Subject to membership qualification tests for new members, and annual registration for all.

Elective for Freshmen.

Professor Bigelow.

In the orchestra the following instruments only are desired: Violin, viola, cello, double bass, flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, trumpet, horn, trombone, tympani.

Two rehearsals, amounting to an average of three hours a week, are required, the same number of absences being allowed as in any other course.

This course may be taken to satisfy requirement 6 in the Freshman and Sophomore years.

This course is also elective for Juniors and Seniors, and, when taken by them, counts for one-half the amount of credit given for a regular three-hour course.

1. Material of music.

Elective for Sophomores.

Completion of, or contemporaneous registration in Music A, requisite.

Professor Bigelow.

2. (Omitted 1932–1933) Study of masterpieces.

Elective for Sophomores.

Completion of or contemporaneous registration in Music A, requisite.

3. Music dramas of Richard Wagner; related reading.

Elective for Juniors.

Music A requisite.

PROFESSOR BIGELOW.

Pianos and reproducing instruments are placed at the disposal of students taking these courses.

PHILOSOPHY

NOTE.—Students may major in philosophy or psychology.

A major in philosophy should include Philosophy 1 and Philosophy 2. The third course may be any other course in philosophy, German 8, Greek 7, or Latin 4.

A major in psychology shall include Philosophy 4 and Philosophy 5. The third course should be selected upon recommendation of the instructor in charge and may be a course outside the philosophy department.

1. History of ancient and medieval philosophy. A survey of European philosophy from the early Greeks to the Renaissance, with special attention to Plato, Aristotle, and the developments of Christian thought. Selected works of the period will be read and discussed in detail.

Elective for Sophomores.

PROFESSORS LAMPRECHT and KENNEDY.

2. History of modern philosophy. This course will trace the development of philosophic theory as revealed in the work of the more important philosophers from the time of Bacon and Descartes to the present.

Elective for Juniors.

A grade of C in Philosophy 1 or Philosophy 3 requisite.

PROFESSOR KENNEDY.

3. Problems of knowledge. In the first semester a study will be made of both deductive and inductive logic. In the second semester the outstanding problems of logical theory will be considered in their setting in a general philosophical interpretation of the nature of knowledge. Opportunity will be given for individual students to specialize on selected topics.

Elective for Juniors.

PROFESSOR KENNEDY.

4. Psychology. The first part of the course is a general survey of the subject. Some important facts and problems of abnormal psychology are then discussed. Finally an opportunity is given for each student to work for some weeks on each of two or three preferred topics, such as behaviorism, Gestalt theory, advertising, psychical research, religious experience, etc.

Elective for Sophomores.

PROFESSOR TOLL.

5. Special topics in psychology. The first semester is given to recent books of special interest. In the second semester each student does individual work on a preferred topic, generally one in which first-hand data are to be obtained.

Elective for Juniors.

Philosophy 4 requisite.

PROFESSOR TOLL.

6. Philosophy of religion. The first part of the course will deal with certain phases of the history of religion. The second part of the course will deal with interpretations of religion: the nature of religion, the functions of various types of religion in human experience, mysticism, the relation of religion and morals, the expressions of religion in art and philosophy.

Elective for Juniors.

PROFESSOR LAMPRECHT.

7. Philosophy of society; politics, ethics, aesthetics. The basis of the State, and the problems of liberty, order, and sovereignty; the nature of ethical conduct in the individual and in society; the principles of aesthetics, and its place, together with religion and philosophy, in human culture.

Elective for Seniors.

PROFESSOR NEWLIN.

9. Metaphysics. A study of the fundamental problems of metaphysics: substance, casuality, potentiality, contingency, purpose. The Metaphysics of Aristotle will be used as a basis of the work, and contemporary literature will be used to illustrate contrasted viewpoints. Each student will prepare an essay on a selected topic.

Elective for Seniors.

A grade of B in Philosophy 1 or Philosophy 2 requisite.

PROFESSOR LAMPRECHT.

PHYSICS

1. General physics; mechanics, sound, heat, electricity, magnetism, and light. It is the aim of this course to lay a good foundation for further study in both pure and applied physics. It is desired that out of a year's work may come a better understanding of the scientific method and spirit of modern physics. While the analytical method of presentation is stressed at times, fundamental phenomena and principles, rather than rigid theoretical derivations, are emphasized throughout the course.

Elective for Freshmen.

Students who have not studied plane trigonometry will be admitted to the course only by special permission of the instructor.

Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.

PROFESSOR S. R. WILLIAMS.

Fee, $9.00.

The following courses are open to students who are credited with Physics 1.

Students planning to take advanced courses or to major in physics should consult with members of the department regarding mathematical preparation.

2. Mechanics, heat, and sound. A second year course in which such topics as statics and dynamics of rigid bodies, gyroscopic motion, gravitation, periodic motion, elasticity, kinetic theory of matter, heat, elementary thermodynamics, and sound are treated more fully than is possible in a first course in physics.

Elective for Sophomores.

Physics 1, Mathematics 2 (which may be taken concurrently) requisite.

Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.

PROFESSOR SOLLER.

Fee, $10.00.

3. Electricity and magnetism. A general survey of fundamental principles with emphasis upon the theory and practice of electrical and magnetic measurements.

Elective for Sophomores.

Physics 1, Mathematics 2 (which may be taken concurrently) requisite.

Three hours class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.

PROFESSOR STIFLER.

Fee, $10.00.

4. (Omitted 1932–1933) Physical optics, optical instruments, and astrophysics.

Elective for Sophomores.

Physics 1, Mathematics 2 (which may be taken concurrently) requisite.

Three hours of class-room and two hours laboratory work per week.

This course is offered in alternate years with Astronomy 2, and may be counted as a course in astronomy.

Courses 4 and 5 are given in alternate years.

PROFESSORS GREEN and SOLLER.

Fee, $10.00.

5. Theoretical physics. A fairly rigid mathematical treatment of certain classical problems in mechanics is followed by a discussion of analogous problems in sound, light, and electricity. In the latter part of the course these results are applied to some of the problems of modern physics, such as the theories of atomic structure.

Elective for Juniors.

Physics 1, Mathematics 2, and either Physics 2, Physics 3, Physics 4 or Mathematics 3, requisite.

Three hours of class-room work per week.

Courses 4 and 5 are given in alternate years.

PROFESSOR STIFLER.

6. Experimental physics. Primarily a laboratory course preparatory to graduate study. Students registered for it will be assigned special problems, with individual instruction. Certain hours of laboratory periods will be taken for discussion of the work.

Elective for Juniors.

Physics 1 and 2 or 3, and Mathematics 2, requisite.

Six hours laboratory work per week.

PROFESSORS S. R. WILLIAMS and STIFLER.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

NOTE.—Courses 1 and 2 will be given in alternate years.

1. (Omitted 1932–1933) Modern governments. A comparative study of the national governments of Great Britain and the British Commonwealth, France, Germany, Italy, Russia, and the United States, with special consideration of the problems of structure and function created by recent economic and social movements.

Elective for Juniors.

PROFESSOR BRADLEY.

2. American government. A survey of American national, state, and local politics with special emphasis on municipal government and administration; powers, organization, and activities will be analyzed as far as possible from actual situations.

Elective for Juniors.

PROFESSOR BRADLEY.

3. International law and relations. International relations, economic, diplomatic, and legal, especially from the point of view of American foreign policy. Particular attention will be given to the development of international organization during the 19th and 20th centuries—the League of Nations, International Labor Organization, World Court, Pan-American Union, etc.

Elective for Seniors.

PROFESSOR BRADLEY.

H. Conference course for honors candidates.

Elective for Seniors.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

NOTE.—See also English 4, which may be counted as a course in public speaking instead of English.

1. Fundamentals of oral expression. A consideration of the principles of correctness, clearness, and effectiveness in speaking, with practice in the delivery of short original speeches.

Elective for Freshmen.

PROFESSOR GARRISON.

2. Extemporaneous speaking; informal public address.

Elective for Sophomores.

One course in public speaking requisite.

PROFESSOR GARRISON.

RELIGION

1. Introduction to the Old and New Testaments. A survey of Israel's political and social history, and of the dominant religious ideas.

Elective for Sophomores.

PROFESSOR CLELAND.

2. The Life and Teaching of Jesus. This course has a two-fold purpose: (a) to examine critically the Gospel records of Jesus' life and teachings: (b) to discover the application of his teachings to our modern social problems.

Religion 1 requisite.

PROFESSOR CLELAND.

SPANISH

1. (Omitted 1932–1933) Pronunciation, grammar, composition, translation, conversation. Equivalent to entrance Spanish A.

Elective for Sophomores.

2. Composition. Advanced reading in the modern novel and some plays of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Lope de Vega; Calderón. Equivalent to entrance Spanish B.

Elective for Freshmen.

DR. AIELLO.

An optional course in Spanish conversation without credit is offered in the late afternoon hours from Thanksgiving until May.

ADMINISTRATION

SCHEDULES, RECORDS, AND REPORTS

The officer in charge of records and reports is the Recorder of the College.

Each year there is printed a set of rules and regulations that cover the internal life of the college, an announcement of courses for use when the election of studies is made, and a schedule of class exercises. These together with copies of the annual catalogue may be obtained at the Recorder's office.

Reports of standing are sent to parents or guardians at the end of each semester. Rank in each subject is reported as follows:

A, 90–100%; B, 80–89%; C, 70–79%; D, 60–69%; E, 50–59%; F, below 50%. The passing grade in each individual course is 60%, and an average grade of at least 70% is required for a degree.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT

The officer having general supervision of student health and physical development is the College Physician.

The College Physician is a member of the Department of Hygiene and Physical Education, and keeps himself acquainted with the health of the students and provides for their proper treatment if ill. Every student soon after he enters college is given a careful physical examination and advised how to maintain his health and increase his physical efficiency.

Three hours a week of physical exercise are required of the Freshmen, Sophomore and Junior Classes until the spring recess. Every student is required to be able to swim at least 100 yards.

No student will be admitted to Amherst College who has not been successfully vaccinated, or who is unwilling to submit to such vaccination by the College Physician within three months after admission.

The College has an infirmary with fifteen beds. It is in charge of the College Physician, though any student is at liberty to employ a physician of his own choice. It contains an operating room for emergency surgical cases, and an isolation ward for treatment of infectious diseases.

A health-service charge of ten dollars is made for each student, which entitles him to one week's bed, board, general nursing, and attendance by the College Physician. For longer periods or for special care an extra charge will be made. Provision is made for a limited number of patients by funds given in aid of needy and worthy students, one in memory of Rev. Edmund K. Alder, D.D., of the Class of 1844, and one in memory of Rev. Thomas P. Field, D.D., of the Class of 1834.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Student activities, both athletic and non-athletic, are under the general supervision of the Dean. The athletic activities are in immediate charge of the Student Council. A student tax of not more than twenty dollars is levied to support these activities, and this entitles a student to free admission to all home athletic events.

EXPENSES

All communications concerning tuition, fees, and rental of rooms should be made to the Comptroller of the College.

Tuition

The charge for tuition, including the use of the library and gymnasium, is four hundred dollars for the year, payable in two instalments, one of two hundred and twenty dollars at the opening of the College in September, and one of one hundred and eighty dollars early in March.

Every student who takes an extra course in order to remove a delinquency incurred by a failure is required to pay an extra fee, at the rate of eighty dollars for a three-hour course for the year, estimated on the basis of credits allowed. Fifty-five per cent of this fee is payable at the opening of the College in September, and the remainder early in March.

The health tax of ten dollars is payable on or before the opening of the College in September.

Every member of the Senior class is required to pay a graduation fee of six dollars early in March.

The charge for tuition for candidates for the degree of Master of Arts is four hundred dollars.

Laboratory Fees

Special fees are required for certain courses in Biology, Chemistry and Physics. The maximum fee for Biology is $15, for Chemistry $20 and for Physics $10. These fees are payable when the classes are organized. Dues for breakage are payable at the close of each semester.

Rooms and Board

The dormitories of the College accommodate about two hundred and fifty students, and the fraternity houses about two hundred and fifty.

The arrangement of rooms in the dormitories is such that they may be rented singly or in suites consisting of a study and either one or two bedrooms. Rooms in Morrow Dormitory are furnished and the rent of the equipment is included in the price charged for rooms. Rooms in North College, South College and Morris Pratt Memorial Dormitory are furnished only with bed, mattress and pillow, and a charge of ten dollars per year is made for the use of this equipment. No release from this charge can be granted nor will students be permitted to supply their own beds, mattresses and pillows. The rooms are heated with steam and lighted with electricity, and many of them are provided with open fireplaces. The floors are hardwood.

Plans showing the arrangement of rooms in the various dormitories together with a detailed statement of rental may be obtained from the Comptroller of the College. The assignment of dormitory rooms will be made in the early spring in accordance with a schedule of preferences as between classes on file in the office of the Comptroller.

A payment of ten dollars is required when a room is engaged, this amount being credited on the account when the first payment is made. The balance of one-half of the yearly rental is payable at the beginning of the college year and the second half early in March.

Dormitory rooms may be rented only for the entire academic year even in cases of withdrawal from College. Applicants who are rejected at the June examinations will be released from their contracts, and deposits made to secure rooms will be refunded on written request to the Comptroller before August first. After the June examinations all applicants who engage rooms will be held responsible for the year's rental.

Dormitory rooms may be occupied on the Saturday before the week in which the college year opens.

Prices charged for rooms include heat, water and janitorial service. Electricity is a separate charge to be paid at the close of each term. The range of room rents for the current year is from $90 to $265 per student.

Board is furnished at various places in the town at prices which range from seven dollars to nine dollars a week.

A cafeteria dining-room in Morrow Dormitory accommodates about one hundred and fifty students.

Summary

The following table shows three scales of annual expenditures. Clothing, travel, laboratory charges, books, membership dues in fraternities and other student organizations, athletic tax, and similar miscellaneous expenses vary from $200 up.

Tuition	$400.00	$400.00	$400.00
Room (one-half)	75.00	150.00	265.00
Furniture (annual average)	15.00	20.00	30.00
Board thirty-six weeks	252.00	288.00	324.00
Fuel and light	10.00	15.00	25.00
Infirmary fee	10.00	10.00	10.00
Miscellaneous	200.00	300.00	400.00
	$962.00	$1183.00	$1454.00

SCHOLARSHIPS AND BENEFICIARY AID

The officer directly in charge of the administration of scholarships and beneficiary aid is the Dean of the College.

The beneficiary funds of the College aggregate seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The income of these funds is distributed annually among students of high character and good scholarship who need pecuniary aid.

The size of the award will depend on the financial need of the applicant. This award will be payable in two instalments,—at the beginning of the year, and in the middle of February. A scholarship holder who, at the end of the first semester, has failed to pass all his courses with an average of at least 70% will forfeit his second semester award.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR THE THREE UPPER CLASSES

Applicants for scholarships, or for renewal of scholarships, from the three upper classes must file at the Dean's office, on or before June 1st, an account of their income and expenditures for the preceding year, and an estimate of their income and expenditures for the following year.

As a minimum scholastic requirement, sophomores must pass all the courses of the preceding year with an average of at least 70%, juniors with an average of at least 72%, and seniors with an average of at least 74%.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR INCOMING STUDENTS

More than fifty scholarships are awarded annually to applicants for admission to college who are in need of financial aid and who meet in full the entrance requirements. These scholarships are awarded for the first half year and entitle the recipient to a credit on the first bill for tuition. The continuation of each scholarship for the second half of the year depends upon the student's grade for the first semester, and, when granted, involves a credit on the second bill for tuition.

Blanks for application may be obtained from the Dean, and must be returned to his office on or before June 1st of the year in which the applicant expects to enter Amherst College.

STUDENT LOAN FUND

Through the liberality of friends of the College, provision is made for loans of a limited amount to a few students in the later years of the course, at a low rate of interest, upon notes acceptably endorsed. In accordance with the conditions imposed by the donors of the Loan Fund, its use is limited to students of thorough scholarship whose habits of expenditure are economical. Application blanks may be obtained at the Treasurer's office.

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Scholarship awards are made from the income of the following funds:

The Charitable Fund, $100,000, primarily in aid of those studying for the Christian ministry. Any surplus income may be awarded to other students in the classical course.

The Charles Morton Merrill Fund, $100,000, for financial aid and assistance to deserving students of Amherst College, established by Charles Edward Merrill of the Class of 1908 in honor of his father whose name it bears.

The Edmund Cogswell Converse Scholarship Fund, $50,000, the bequest of Edmund Cogswell Converse of New York.

The William Hilton Scholarship Fund, $50,000, the bequest of William Hilton of Boston.

The Stone Educational Fund, $25,000.

The Class of 1871 Scholarship Fund, $25,000, established by a member of the class.

The Moore Beneficiary Fund, $24,000, established by Rev. Zephaniah Swift Moore, D.D., first President of the College.

The Whitcomb Scholarship Fund, $12,000, established by David Whitcomb and G. Henry Whitcomb of Worcester.

The Hitchcock Scholarship Fund, $11,000, established by Samuel A. Hitchcock of Brimfield.

The John E. Sanford Class of 1851 Scholarship Fund, $10,000, established by John E. Sanford of Taunton.

The E. Russell Scholarship Fund, $8000, established by Mrs. C. A. Coffin.

The Emerson Gaylord Scholarship Fund, $6000, the bequest of Emerson Gaylord of Chicopee. Preference is given to graduates of the Chicopee High School.

The Day Benevolent Fund, $5000, the bequest of Moses Day of Boston.

The Seymour Scholarship Fund, $5000, the bequest of James S. Seymour of Auburn, N. Y.

The Harry L. Wilbur Scholarship Fund, $5000, established by his parents in memory of Harry L. Wilbur of the Class of 1884.

A Scholarship Fund, $5000, the bequest of Ivory H. Bartlett, Jr., of New Bedford.

The Addison Brown Scholarship Fund, $5000, the bequest of Addison Brown of the Class of 1852, of New York. THE COLLEGE PLANT

Amherst College is located in the town of Amherst, Massachusetts, six miles east of the Connecticut River, some twenty-five miles north of Springfield and about ninety miles due west from Boston. The College owns altogether in Amherst about three hundred acres of land of which one hundred and ten acres constitute the main campus. On the campus are situated Johnson Chapel, the College Church, four dormitories which accommodate altogether about two hundred and fifty students, laboratories and museums, administration buildings, the Converse Library, the gymnasium and recitation halls. Just off of the main campus are the President's house, College Hall which is the main auditorium of the College, the Faculty Club, the indoor athletic field and the college playground, Hitchcock Field. Somewhat further away but yet convenient to the main campus are the main athletic field, the golf club, the College Observatory and the college infirmary, Pratt Health Cottage. In addition the College owns considerable areas which are undeveloped farm land or forest and which serve as a protection to the College against undesirable developments in its vicinity.

Near to the campus scattered throughout the town are thirteen fraternity houses in which some three hundred students reside. These fraternity houses do not belong to the College and are not under its administration. Nevertheless they constitute an important part of the property used in connection with the life of the College. Many of the college buildings are old,—some of them date back more than a century to the founding of the College. Nevertheless they are all well maintained and each serves a useful and necessary purpose.

FOLGER SHAKESPEARE LIBRARY

By the will of the late Henry C. Folger of the Class of 1879 there was given to Amherst College the Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington, D. C., together with its collections and an endowment for maintenance, later increased by the generosity of Mrs. Folger. The building, located on East Capitol Street directly east of the Library of Congress, contains an exhibition hall, a small auditorium modeled on an Elizabethan theatre, a large reading room with ample book stacks and vaults, and smaller studies and offices for the Library staff and visiting scholars. A portion of the large collection of books, manuscripts, works of art, and other objects associated with Shakespeare, the Elizabethan Age, and the stage history of Shakespeare's plays, has been placed on display in the exhibition hall and is open to public inspection on week days. The reading room is not open to casual visitors, but permission to read may be obtained by making application to the Supervisor of Research.

PUBLICATIONS

COLLEGE PUBLICATIONS

The annual Catalogue is issued in December.

The annual Report of the President, Dean, Librarian, College Physician, and Treasurer, is issued in the autumn.

An address list of living alumni is issued once in two years.

Amherst Biographical Record, a complete and authoritative account of everyone who has been connected with the College since its founding (1821–1921)—trustees, faculty, administrative officers, graduates, non-graduates and honorary graduates. It was published by Amherst College in 1926 under the auspices of the Alumni Council and under the editorship of Robert S. Fletcher '97 and Malcolm O. Young '16.

THE AMHERST BOOKS

As part of the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary, the College began the publication of a series of volumes written by Amherst men to be known as THE AMHERST BOOKS. Orders for any of these books may be sent to the Managing Editor, Professor H. H. Plough, Amherst, Mass.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

A Handbook, published and distributed annually by the Christian Association, contains information chiefly useful to new students.

A semi-weekly paper, The Amherst Student, contains college news and discussion of college affairs.

The Amherst Book of Undergraduate Verse is published annually under the auspices of The Poetry Society of Amherst College. The poems in the book for the most part are poems which were submitted and read at the monthly meetings of the Poetry Society.

The Amherst Spectator contains articles, essays, poems, stories, and book notices.

The Olio, the College year-book, published annually by the Junior class, contains names of the members of fraternities, of officers and members of athletic, musical, literary, and dramatic organizations, of students receiving prizes and honors, and various matters of interest to the College.

Amherst's humorous publication, Lord Jeff, is published six times a year.

ALUMNI PUBLICATIONS

The Amherst Graduates' Quarterly is published by the Alumni Council in November, February, May and August. Communications for the editors, as well as all business communications, should be addressed to Amherst Graduates' Quarterly, Box 549, Amherst, Mass.

The Amherst Memorial Volume, a record of Amherst men in the World War, was published by the College under the auspices of the Alumni Council in 1926. The book contains an introductory essay, "A College in War Time," accounts of the Amherst Unit Medical Reserve Corps, the Amherst Unit of the American Field Ambulance Service, the Wounded and Decorated, a sketch of the Amherst Dead, and a record of the Amherst members of the military, naval and air forces of the United States. It is edited by Claude M. Fuess, Ph.D., '05, professor in English at Phillips Academy, Andover, and formerly a major, U. S. A. It contains an introduction by George Daniel Olds.

Amherst College Songs was published by the Alumni Council of Amherst College in 1926. The collection includes many old campus favorites, and many songs never before available in print for the general Amherst public. The volume is edited by William P. Bigelow, '89, Professor of Music in Amherst College, with an introduction by William A. Vollmer, '09, and is illustrated with scenes of Amherst life.

Amherst Alumni Council News is published in October, December, February, March, May and July. It contains reports of the work of the Alumni Council and current news of the College. Communications for the editor should be addressed to Amherst Alumni Council News, Box 549, Amherst, Mass.

UNDERGRADUATE ORGANIZATIONS

In addition to the usual literary, musical, athletic and social organizations of the College there exist at Amherst also the following:

The Poetry Society of Amherst College, a voluntary organization of verse writers drawn from the four undergraduate classes. The Poetry Society of Amherst College is a branch of the Poetry Society of America, and the plan of monthly meetings in the Amherst Society is copied from the procedure followed by the national body.

The Masquers of Amherst College, an organization of undergraduates whose purpose is to produce interesting and significant plays and to encourage activity along dramatic lines. At least three full-length plays are produced during the College year, one of which is done in collaboration with either Mount Holyoke College or Smith College.

The Amherst College Clerical Club, organized in 1926, to whose membership is welcome any student who is seriously considering some form of religious work as a career.

The Amherst College Classical Club, founded in 1924, which meets once a month for discussion and the reading of papers presented alternately by undergraduate and faculty members.

The Pre-Medical Club, organized in 1928, for the purpose of helping to orient those students who expect to enter upon a career in medicine or in some related scientific field.

The Liberal Club, an informal organization open to the student body of Amherst College, formed for the purpose of fostering thought on and discussion of current social problems.

The International Relations Club, established in 1929.

The Pre-Law Club, established in 1932, for the benefit of students anticipating graduate work in law school.

The Outing Club, an organization of students and faculty for the purpose of hiking, mountain climbing, skiing and snowshoeing. The club arranges trips, makes and maintains trails, and has a cabin on Mount Toby as its headquarters.

HONORS

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

From the fifteen Seniors who have attained the highest general standing at the end of the first semester of Senior year, speakers are selected upon the basis of literary and oratorical merit to deliver orations on Commencement Day. The Bond Prize of one hundred dollars is awarded to the speaker who delivers the best oration.

The Phi Beta Kappa Society

Juniors who have attained a grade of eighty-eight per cent after seven semesters and Seniors who have attained a grade of eighty-five per cent after nine semesters are eligible for election to membership in the Beta Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society; other undergraduates of outstanding scholarship, and graduates who attained the specified standing but who were not members in course, may be elected by a unanimous vote of the Chapter.

HONORS IN A SPECIAL SUBJECT

Honors in a single department of study are awarded for special work involving collateral reading or investigation.

Honors are entered on the Commencement program and announced in the annual catalogue.

HONORABLE MENTION

Honorable mention is awarded in the various departments under the following conditions:

(1) A standing of not less than seventy-five per cent attained in every department for the year.

(2) An average of ninety-three per cent maintained for a full year's course in the department in which honorable mention is sought.

The names of those who have honorable mention are announced in the annual catalogue.

PRIZES

The following prizes are offered annually for proficiency in the work of the several departments of collegiate study:

ENGLISH

The Armstrong Prize, of fifty dollars in books, given by Collin Armstrong of the Class of 1877, in memory of his mother, Miriam Collin Armstrong, to members of the Freshman class who excel in composition.

The Folger Prizes, of one hundred, fifty, and twenty-five dollars, given by Henry C. Folger, Jr., of the Class of 1879, for the best essays on Shakespearean topics, to be competed for by members of the Junior and Senior classes. These essays must be typewritten, and submitted before May 1.

The Collin Armstrong Poetry Prize, of fifty dollars, awarded to the undergraduate author of the best original poem or group of poems.

The John Franklin Genung Prize, of fifty dollars, given anonymously in memory of Professor Genung, to that member of the Junior or Senior class who excels in prose composition.

The Harry Richmond Hunter, Jr. Prize, of forty dollars, given by H. R. Hunter and Emma Louise Hunter, in memory of their son, Harry Richmond Hunter, Jr., to that member of the Sophomore Class who presents the best essay on a topic approved by the English department.

GREEK

The Hutchins Prize, of fifty dollars, given by the late Waldo Hutchins of the Class of 1842, to the best scholar in Greek at the end of the Junior year. The scholarship is determined chiefly by the regular recitations and examinations of the department, but special studies and examinations may also be required of the candidates.

The William C. Collar Prize, of forty-five dollars, given by the late William C. Collar of the Class of 1859, to that member of the Freshman class who shall make on a written examination the best version in English of a previously unseen passage from some Greek author.

LATIN

Two Bertram Prizes, of fifty dollars each, given by the late John Bertram of Salem, to those students who, together with attaining a high average in Latin 4, present the best essays on some approved topic connected with the course.

Two Junior Prizes, of thirty dollars each, to those students who, together with attaining a high average in Latin 3, present the best essays on some approved topic connected with the course.

The Billings Prizes, of thirty and of twenty dollars, given by the late Parmly Billings of the Class of 1884, for general excellence in the work of the Sophomore year, together with the best essays on special topics connected with the authors read in that year.

The Freshman Prizes, of twenty-five and of fifteen dollars, for the highest scholarship in the Latin of Freshman year. The award is determined by the reading at sight of passages from Cicero, Livy, Horace, and Ovid.

MATHEMATICS, PHYSICS, AND ASTRONOMY

The Walker Prizes, given by the late William J. Walker of Newport, Rhode Island. Two prizes, of fifty and of thirty dollars, in the mathematics of the first year.

Two prizes, of eighty and of forty dollars, in the mathematics of the second year.

The award in each case is determined by an examination.

The Porter Prizes, of twenty and of ten dollars for proficiency in first year physics and astronomy respectively, given by the late Eleazer Porter of Hadley.

NATURAL SCIENCE

The Sawyer Prize, a gold medal of the value of fifty dollars, given by the late Edmund H. Sawyer of Easthampton for the best work in the course in human anatomy and physiology.

The A. Lyman Williston Prizes in Physical Education, of seventy-five dollars, given by the late A. Lyman Williston of Northampton in memory of his friend, teacher, and co-trustee of Mount Holyoke College and Williston Seminary, Dr. Edward Hitchcock. These prizes are continued by his son, Robert L. Williston.

To the two members of the Freshman class who attain the highest rank in the course on personal hygiene, fifteen and ten dollars.

To the two members of the Junior class who, in the opinion of the department, have profited most from their three years' work in the Department of Hygiene and Physical Education, thirty and twenty dollars.

THE PORTER ADMISSION PRIZE

The Porter Admission Prize, of fifty dollars, given by the late Eleazer Porter, of Hadley, to the student who passes the best examination in an ancient language, English, and mathematics, at an examination in October open to all members of the entering class. The name of the successful candidate, together with that of his school or of the instructor with whom he prepared for college, is published in the catalogue.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

THE KELLOGG PRIZES, one of fifty dollars to a member of the Sophomore class, and one of fifty dollars to a member of the Freshman class, given by the late Rufus B. Kellogg, of the Class of 1858, for excellence in declamation.

THE HARDY PRIZES, of thirty and twenty dollars, given by the late Alpheus Hardy of Boston, for excellence in extemporaneous speaking.

THE BOND PRIZE, of one hundred dollars, given by the late Ephraim W. Bond of the Class of 1841, for the best production spoken on the Commencement stage. The award is determined by a committee appointed by the Trustees upon nomination by the Faculty Committee on Prizes.

THE ROGERS PRIZE, of seventy dollars, given by Noah C. Rogers, of the Class of 1880, for excellence in debate.

SCHOLARSHIPS

THE TREADWAY INTERFRATERNITY SCHOLARSHIP TROPHY, a silver cup, given by Hon. Allen Treadway of the Class of 1886, in memory of his son, Charles Denton Treadway, awarded to that fraternity or the group of all non-fraternity men which has attained the highest scholastic average during the previous academic year.

THE ADDISON BROWN SCHOLARSHIP, of approximately two hundred and fifty dollars, the income of the Addison Brown Scholarship Fund, $5000, the bequest of Addison Brown of the Class of 1852, of New York. The Addison Brown Scholarship is awarded annually to that member of the Senior class who, being already on the scholarship list, shall have attained the highest standing in the studies of the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior years.

THE SAMUEL WALLEY BROWN SCHOLARSHIP, of two hundred and forty dollars, given by the late Samuel Walley Brown, of the Class of 1866, to that member of the Sophomore class, who at the end of his Sophomore year shall, in the estimation of the Trustees, rank highest in his class in character, class leadership, scholarship, and athletic ability.

A SCHOLARSHIP OF FIFTY DOLLARS at the Woods Hole Marine Laboratory, made up from the income of a fund of five hundred dollars established by the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity in 1913, supplemented by an annual gift from the Fraternity, to be awarded to that student who has shown the greatest proficiency in Biology.

The income of a scholarship fund of $2000, established by Frederick H. Blodgett, in memory of his grandfather, Harvey Blodgett of the Class of 1829, to aid student work in Biology and Geology in their educational phases as distinct from their more technical and strictly scientific phases.

OTHER PRIZES

The Woods Prize, of sixty dollars, given by the late Josiah B. Woods of Enfield, for outstanding excellence in culture and faithfulness to duty as a man and a scholar—particular attention being given in any prominent case to improvement during the four years' course.

The Stanley V. and Charles B. Travis Prize, of ninety dollars, given by the late Charles B. Travis of the Class of 1864, for outstanding excellence in culture and faithfulness to duty as a man and as a scholar —particular attention being given in any prominent case to improvement during the four years' course.

The Ralph Waldo Rice Prize, of forty dollars, given by Mrs. May Rice Jenkins in memory of her brother, Ralph Waldo Rice of the Class of 1910, for the best essay on "The Liberal College and Christian Citizenship" or any other subject named by the Faculty.

The Dante Prize, of one hundred dollars, is offered annually by the Dante Society of America for the best essay by a student, or graduate of not more than three years' standing, on a subject drawn from the life or works of Dante. Competition for the prize is open to students and graduates of any college or university of the United States. Detailed information in regard to the rules of competition and choice of subjects may be obtained from the Department of Romance Languages.

The Lincoln Lowell Russell Prize, of forty dollars, given by J. W. Russell, Jr., of the Class of 1899, in memory of his son, to be awarded annually to that member of the graduating class who has done the most to foster the singing spirit in Amherst College.

The Moseley Prizes, of one hundred and fifty and of seventy-five dollars, given by the late Thomas W. H. Moseley of Hyde Park, to members of the Senior class for the best essays on "The Scientific Evidences of Religion."

The John Gough Howard Prize, of twenty-five dollars, given by the Class of 1919, in memory of their classmate, John Gough Howard, Editor-in-Chief-Elect of The Amherst Student, killed in military service in May, 1919; to be awarded at the end of the college year to that member of the Editorial Board of The Amherst Student or to the author of a communication appearing in its columns, who, in the opinion of a Board of Judges, has written, prior to May first, the best editorial or communication aiming to influence undergraduate opinion.

The Howard Hill Mossman Trophy, awarded annually to the member of the Senior class, who, in the opinion of a committee consisting of the President of the Student Council, the Professor of Physical Education, and the Secretary of the Committee on Student Activities, has brought, during his four years at Amherst, the greatest honor in athletics to his Alma Mater—the word "honor" to be interpreted as relating both to achievement and to sportsmanship.

The Bancroft Prize, of one hundred dollars, given by Frederic Bancroft, of the Class of 1882, to that member of the Senior class who produces the best oration. Both composition and delivery are considered in making the award.

The Anna Baker Heap Prize, the income of a bequest of $1000, given by the late Arnold N. Heap of the Class of 1873, to be awarded annually to that Senior who submits the best essay in the field of "Art."

FELLOWSHIPS

THE ROSWELL DWIGHT HITCHCOCK MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

Of two hundred and fifty dollars, established through the agency of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, is awarded annually, under conditions determined by the Faculty, to a member of the Senior class for excellence in history and the social and economic sciences. The holder of the Fellowship pursues for one year, at an institution approved by the Faculty, a course of study in history or economics, to be completed within the period of two years next following graduation. The amount of the Fellowship is paid in two instalments, one on completion of one-half the year's work, the other at the end of the year.

Applications should be made in writing to the President's Office before March 25.

THE RUFUS B. KELLOGG UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP

The gift of the late Rufus B. Kellogg of the Class of 1858, awards the income of about thirty thousand dollars for seven years to an alumnus of Amherst College, who shall be appointed upon the following conditions:

(1) He shall be elected by the Faculty from the members of the class graduated at the close of the academic year in which this election shall be made, or from the members of the classes graduated in the six years immediately preceding the academic year in which this election shall be made.

(2) The Faculty shall select as the incumbent of the said Fellowship the man who, in their judgment, is best equipped for study and research, without regard to any other consideration whatsoever, except that he shall have an especially good knowledge of the Latin and German languages.

(3) The first three years of the term of seven years the incumbent shall spend at a German university (or with the approval of the Faculty of Amherst College, at any other place or places), in the study of philosophy, philology, literature, history, political science, political economy, mathematics, or natural science. The last four years of the term of seven years shall be spent as a lecturer at Amherst College. But the incumbent shall not give more than thirty lectures per annum, and shall not be required to reside at Amherst more than one college term of any year. The lectures shall be upon a subject selected by himself and approved by the Trustees and shall be given to the Senior class, but the members of all the classes shall have the privilege of attending; and the incumbent shall cause the lectures to be published at the end of his official term in good book form. He shall have no occupation or employment during the period of his Fellowship, except such as pertains to the duty of his Fellowship.

THE EDWARD HITCHCOCK FELLOWSHIP

Of one thousand dollars, was founded by the late Mrs. Frank L. Babbott of Brooklyn, N. Y., to promote graduate study in the department of physical education. Its object is to make the student familiar with the best methods of physical training, both in the gymnasium and on the field. The appointment is made by the Faculty.

THE AMHERST MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIPS FOR THE STUDY OF SOCIAL, ECONOMIC, AND POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS

Fellowships to perpetuate the memory of those Amherst men who gave their lives for an ideal. The following statement expresses the purpose of the donor of these fellowships: "Realizing the need for better understanding and more complete adjustment between men and existing social, economic, and political institutions, it is my desire to establish a fellowship for the study of the principles underlying these human relationships."

Appointments to these fellowships may be made from the graduating class of Amherst College, or from the alumni of Amherst or of other colleges, the object being to permit men of character, scholarly promise, and intellectual curiosity to investigate some problem in the humanistic sciences. Candidates should be men of sound health. During previous training they should have given evidence of marked mental ability in some branch of the social sciences—history, economics, political science—and have given promise of original contribution to a particular field of study. It is desirable that they possess qualities of leadership, a spirit of service, and an intention to devote their efforts to the betterment of social conditions through teaching in its broad sense, journalism, politics, or field work.

Appointments may be made for terms of two years. Tenure may, however, be shorter or longer, depending upon the nature of the subjects investigated or upon other circumstances which, in the judgment of the committee, warrant a variation in the length of tenure. It is expected that, ordinarily, a portion of each appointment will be spent in study in Europe.

The stipend will vary according to the circumstances of the appointment. Awards will depend upon those aspects of individual cases which, in the judgment of the committee, most suitably fulfill the purpose of the foundation.

Applications should be made before February fifteenth upon blank forms to be obtained from the Secretary of the Amherst Memorial Fellowships, President's Office, Amherst College.

THE JOHN WOODRUFF SIMPSON FELLOWSHIPS AND LECTURESHIPS

A fund of $150,000 given in memory of John Woodruff Simpson of the Class of 1871, by his wife and daughter. The uses of the income as defined by the donors are as follows:

"1. To award to any graduate of Amherst College a fellowship for use in studying law at any school approved by the Board of Trustees of the College;

"2. To award to any graduate of Amherst College a fellowship for use in studying medicine at any school approved by the Board of Trustees of the College;

"3. To award to any graduate of Amherst College a fellowship for use in studying theology at any school approved by the Board of Trustees of Amherst College, without regard to the particular creed or particular religious belief taught thereat;

"4. To award to any graduate of Amherst College a fellowship for use in graduate study at the universities of Oxford or Cambridge in England;

"5. To award to any graduate of Amherst College a fellowship for use in graduate study at the Sorbonne in Paris;

"6. To secure from time to time from England, France or elsewhere scholars for the purpose of delivering lectures or courses of instruction at Amherst College."

Application should be made in writing to the President's Office before February 15.

THE FORRIS JEWETT MOORE FELLOWSHIPS

These fellowships, three in number, were given in memory of Forris Jewett Moore of the Class of 1889 by his widow, Emma B. Moore.

1. A fund of fifteen thousand dollars, the income of which is to be used to assist some graduate of Amherst College who has distinguished himself in the study of chemistry while an undergraduate and desires to engage in further study of that subject, preference to be given to eligible candidates whose plans lie in the field of organic chemistry. The beneficiary is to be a member of the graduating class of the year preceding that in which he holds the Fellowship.

2. A fund of ten thousand dollars, the income of which is to be awarded to a graduate of Amherst College who has distinguished himself in the study of history while an undergraduate and desires to engage in further study on that subject. The beneficiary is to be a member of the graduating class of the year preceding that in which he holds the Fellowship.

3. A fund of ten thousand dollars, the income of which is to be awarded to a graduate of Amherst College who has distinguished himself in the study of philosophy while an undergraduate and desires to engage in further study on that subject. The beneficiary is to be a member of the graduating class of the year preceding that in which he holds the Fellowship.

Applications for these Fellowships should be made in writing to the President's Office before March 25.

FELLOWSHIPS AWARDED BY THE AMERICAN SCHOOLS OF CLASSICAL STUDIES AT ATHENS AND ROME

The attention of graduate students interested in the Classics and in Archaeology and Ancient Art is called to the opportunities offered by the American Schools of Classical Studies at Athens and Rome. As the College contributes regularly to the support of these schools, any Amherst graduate may enjoy the privileges of study at either school without charge for tuition and may compete for the annual fellowships which they offer. Further information may be obtained from any classical teacher at the College.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

A grant of $5000 a year for five years, beginning with 1931, given by Sherman Pratt, 1927, to provide for the award of a number of yearly scholarships for residence at Amherst, to students from foreign universities.

The purpose of these scholarships is to promote an understanding of foreign cultural institutions through personal contact between foreign students and the students of Amherst.

LECTURESHIPS

The Henry Ward Beecher Lectureship

This lectureship was founded by Frank L. Babbott, M.A., of the Class of 1878, in honor of Henry Ward Beecher, of the Class of 1834. The incumbent is appointed biennially by the Faculty for supplementary lectures in the Departments of History and the Political, Social, and Economic Sciences.

The Clyde Fitch Fund

A fund of twenty thousand dollars was established by Captain and Mrs. W. G. Fitch of New York in memory of their son, Clyde Fitch, of the Class of 1886. The income of this fund is to be used for the furtherance of the study of English literature and dramatic art and literature. The whole or part of this income is usually devoted to the remuneration of an eminent lecturer, who may also take a part in the regular instruction of the College.

The John Woodruff Simpson Lectureship

A fund of $150,000 was established in memory of John Woodruff Simpson, of the Class of 1871, by his wife and daughter. The income is to be used for fellowships and "to secure from time to time, from England, France or elsewhere, scholars for the purpose of delivering lectures or courses of instruction at Amherst College."
